

Skadden's Hong Kong* office focuses on a full range of corporate, capital markets, antitrust/competition, mergers and acquisitions, private equity, energy, infrastructure and project finance, real estate and investment finance, restructuring and insolvency, structured finance, and regulatory and white collar matters. The office also is the headquarters of the firm's Asia Pacific international arbitration and litigation practice. With combined U.S., Hong Kong and English law capabilities, we provide integrated, comprehensive services on a wide variety of matters.

We were one of the first law firms to establish a Hong Kong-based corporate practice and provide our clients with counsel based off many years of experience working as an integrated Hong Kong-U.S. team. Our attorneys' diverse and accomplished backgrounds allow us to advise on some of Hong Kong's most complex initial public offerings and mergers and acquisitions.

Our Hong Kong-based attorneys often work in tandem with our teams in Beijing, Seoul, Shanghai, Singapore, Tokyo, the United States and Europe to serve our clients in Asia, and we have handled matters in mainland China, Hong Kong, India, Indonesia, Japan, Macau, Malaysia, Pakistan, the Philippines, Singapore, South Korea, Taiwan, Thailand and Vietnam, among others.

Our clients in Hong Kong include major multinational corporations, leading investment banks and commercial banks, private equity firms, investors and developers across a broad spectrum of industries.
